The Rest of the Story

Vikings did not wear horned helmets.

Viking meant pillaging and a "Viking" was a pirate - they did not see themselves this way.

They were traders and they carried out raids for business reasons.

They traded slaves, furs and amber.

Norman Conquests

The Vikings who settled in northern France became known as Normans (from Norsemen).

1066 - William, grandson of Rollo, conquers England at the Battle of Hastings.
