The United Nations

The United Nations is an international organization founded in 1945 after the Second World War by 51 countries.

Today, the 193 Member States express their views, through the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council and other bodies and committees. The United Nations is headquartered in New York with branch offices in Geneva and Vienna.

The UN has "4" Main Purposes

- 1) To keep peace throughout the world.
- 2) To develop friendly relations among nations.
- 3) To help nations work together to improve the lives of poor people, to conquer hunger, disease and illiteracy, and to encourage respect for each other's rights and freedoms.
- 4) To be a center for harmonizing the actions of nations to achieve these goals.
