

Chapter 10 (End of Book)

Choose the character that most is like you. From the perspective of that animal write your impressions of life on the farm.

or

This "fairy tale" was written long before you were born. What valuable life lessons can you take from it that would benefit you as you go out into the world?

Length - approximately 250 words

Due - Friday